TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

Cape Town to Stellenbosch

Travelling via Groot Constantia to Hout Bay and from there explore the Cape Peninsula's spectacular coastline.

Groot Constantia – Cellar tour and wine tasting at the oldest and one of the finest wine-producing farms in South Africa.

Hout Bay harbour – Optional boat trip to Duiker Island to see the endemic Cape Fur Seal and enough time to try out the excellent 'Fish and Chips' at Mariner's Wharf.

Chapman's Peak drive – Towering cliffs dropping into the ocean on one of the world's most scenic drives.

Cape Point – Wild oceans crash into the tip of Africa at its most south westerly point on this dramatic peninsula. It is situated in the Cape of Good Hope nature reserve, where wildlife roams amongst the Cape's unique fynbos landscape.

Simon's Town, Fish Hoek, Kalk Bay and Muizenberg
Beautiful seaside villages full of history and character.

Stellenbosch – A historic town and university campus cradled by soaring mountains and world renowned wine estates. This is a compulsory night stop for excellent accommodation, decadent and award-winning restaurants and vibrant nightlife.
